Jenee Littrell
Candidate for GUHSD Board
El Cajon, CA

Dear Miss Littrell,

On behalf of the El Cajon Police Officers' Association, congratulations on your candidacy for the Grossmont Union High School District Board.

After careful consideration, the Association is proud to formally endorse you in your campaign. We value your commitment to supporting quality education, promoting safe and secure school campuses, and making thoughtful decisions that serve the best interests of students, families, educators, and the community.

Your willingness to serve in this important role demonstrates a dedication to public service and to the future of East County's students. We believe your experience, leadership, and commitment to accountability will make you an effective member of the Governing Board.

We appreciate your engagement with our members and look forward to continued dialogue throughout your campaign and, if elected, during your service on the Grossmont Union High School District Board.

We wish you success in the months ahead and look forward to working together for the betterment of our community.

Respectfully,

Patrick Gomes
Vice President
El Cajon Police Officers' Association
